Fort Wayne, Indiana, April 13-1903;

DECLARATORY RESOLUTION NO. 95

For the opening and extending of Poplar street from Oakley street to the first alley west of Oakley street:

RESOLVED, by the Board of Public Works of the city of Fort Wayne, Indiana, that it is desired and deemed necessary to open and extend Poplar street in the city of Fort Wayne, Allen County, Indiana, from Oakley street to the first alley west of Oakley street, said opening and extension to be made by condemning and appropriating for such purposes sufficient lots and lands described as follows: The north 15 feet of lot No. 32 Bonds 2nd addition to the city of Fort Wayne, Allen County, Indiana, located in the southwest quarter of Section 11, T. 30, N.R. 12 east, and being a part of Fairfields out-lot No. 15.

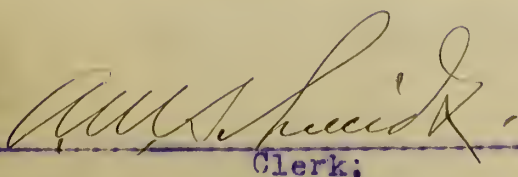

All as shown by a plan of such proposed opening and extending of Poplar street above described now on file in the office of the Board of Public Works of said city.

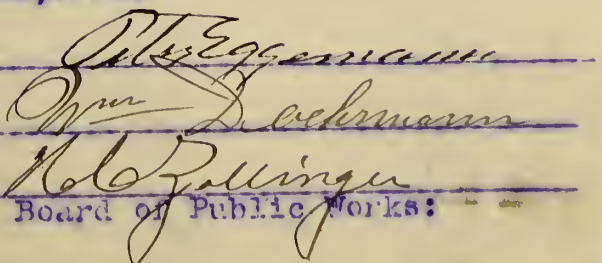

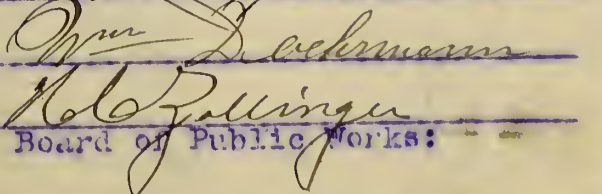

The property which may be injuriously or beneficially affected by the opening and extending of said Poplar street above described is described as all lots or parcels of land not occupied by streets or alleys lying south of the first alley south of Walnut street and the lines of said alley produced west to Miner street, west of Fairfield avenue, north of the alleys north of DeWald street and north of lots Nos. 15 and 28 Bonds 2nd addition and east of Miner street.

All of said street and lots and lands affected by the opening and extending of said Poplar street being situated in the city of Fort Wayne, County of Allen and State of Indiana.

Adopted this 13th day of April, 1903:

of which shows a solid state of mind.

It is further stated above that the man in this is the owner of the land.

All the above is a plan of work, and is not a plan of work.

The property, which was the subject of the mortgage, was situated in the city of New York, and was bounded by the streets of New York, and was situated in the city of New York, and was bounded by the streets of New York.

1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 1, 1861. It is a very important document, as it contains the President's message to the Congress at the beginning of his first term. The letter is written in a formal, dignified style, and it is a good example of the President's role as the head of the executive branch of the government.

To The Hon. Board of Public Works,

City of Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Gentlemen:-

We, the undersigned property owners in the vicinity of the proposed opening and extension of Poplar Street, from Oakley Street, West, to the East line of Miner Street, in the city of Fort Wayne, respectfully remonstrate against the opening and extension of said Street, for the following reasons:-

That the said opening and extension of said Poplar Street, from Oakley Street to the east line of Miner Street, will not benefit the properties of the undersigned:

And the undersigned property owners do hereby object and protest against their lots being assessed for benefits by the said opening of said Poplar Street.

Respectfully Submitted,
